Frequently Asked Questions

Everything you need to know about our Lit Bus experiences.

1  How many students can participate?
We can serve small groups, classrooms, grade levels, or larger school audiences. Larger groups typically rotate through the bus and supporting activities.

6  Indoor or outdoor?
The bus remains outdoors in a safe parking area. Supporting activities may be held outdoors or inside your building.

2  How long is a visit?
Most experiences are 60–90 minutes, with half-day, full-day, and custom options available.

7  How much space is needed?
We need a safe, level parking area with enough room for the bus to enter, park, and exit.

3  Do students purchase books?
Book purchasing is optional. Schools may sponsor books, invite family purchases, or choose a book fair model.

8  How far in advance should we book?
We recommend booking 4–8 weeks in advance. Peak school seasons fill quickly.

4  Do you travel?
Yes. We travel throughout New York and surrounding areas. Mileage and travel fees may apply.

9  Can we combine experiences?
Yes. Many schools combine a book fair, author visit, Battle of the Books, or themed literacy activities.

5  Can experiences be customized?
Absolutely. We tailor the books, activities, themes, and schedule to fit your audience and goals.

10  What happens if it rains?
When possible, outdoor elements can be moved indoors or adjusted. Severe weather may require rescheduling.
